

COLLEGE OF MICRONESIA-FSM

BOARD POLICY NO. 4708

Appeal of Financial Aid Suspension

Date Adopted: 01 April 1993

Date Revised: 28 September 2011; 27 November 2019; 09-11 June 2026

Date Reviewed: 8 September 2011; 27 November 2019; 09-11 June 2026

References:

Students determined to be ineligible for financial aid may appeal the decision by submitting a written appeal to the Chairperson of the Financial Aid Committee within ten working or business days from the date of receipt of the financial aid suspension notice.

The written appeal must include the following, as applicable:

1. A clear explanation of the reasons the student failed to meet the minimum satisfactory academic progress requirements, including qualitative and/or quantitative standards, and/or failed to complete the educational objective within the maximum allowable time frame; and/or
2. A description of any non-academic or extenuating circumstances that affected the student's academic performance and support continued financial aid eligibility. Examples may include, but are not limited to:
 - a. Serious illness or injury of the student;
 - b. Death or serious illness of an immediate family member;
 - c. Personal or family emergency; or
 - d. Other documented special circumstances.

The appeal must be supported by appropriate documentation, which may include statements or records from a physician, counselor, academic advisor, employer, or other relevant third party.

Submission of an appeal does not guarantee reinstatement of financial aid eligibility. All appeals shall be reviewed individually by the Financial Aid Committee to determine whether sufficient and supporting documentation exist to warrant reinstatement. The decision of the Financial Aid Committee shall be final. Students will be notified in writing of the committee's decision within ten (10) working days after receipt of the complete appeal submission.

Official appeal forms are available at the Financial Aid Offices on all campuses of the College.

Reinstatement of Financial Aid Eligibility

Students whose financial aid eligibility has been suspended due to failure to meet satisfactory academic progress requirements may regain eligibility after successfully correcting all academic deficiencies at their own expense. Reinstatement may occur when the student has:

COLLEGE OF MICRONESIA-FSM
BOARD POLICY NO. 4708

1. Achieved the required cumulative grade point average and/or completion rate standards; and/or
2. Completed all prior credit deficiencies necessary to meet satisfactory academic progress requirements.

Reinstatement of eligibility is subject to review and confirmation by the Financial Aid Office in accordance with institutional satisfactory academic progress standards and procedures at College of Micronesia-FSM.

See Administrative Procedure 4708.